BRIGHTLANDS CIRCULAR SPACE

With a unique circular demonstrator in combination with a circular collaboration model for the future Brightlands Circular Space is a core player in the circular plastics research and development

Centrally located in the ARRRRA region
(largest chemical cluster of the world)

Brightlands Circular Space

Setting up, filling and using a facility together for everyone's circular ambitions

Brightlands Circular Space

A collection of concepts on different levels

An ecosystem with a shared vision on circularity of plastics

A portfolio of (inter)national projects and programs in the circular field in which we develop activities –from education and research to development, upscaling and transition –that are complementary and together cover the entire chain

A facility that is the focus of the present collaboration and is open to (inter)national use by third parties (open space)
